

WAR WORK SPEAKERS TALK TO PARADERS

Hold Meetings on Downtown Corners During Celebration.

ASHLAND OVER TOP

Incomplete Reports for Columbia Show $7,100 Subscribed.

Outdoor meetings were held on the downtown streets of Columbia today, beginning at noon, in the interests of the United War Work campaign.

These patriotic meetings were merged with the celebration over the news that Germany had accepted the Allies' rigorous terms.

Private Earl Ramey of Fredericktown, Mo., a Marine who lost one leg at the battle in Belleau Wood, was one of the speakers. Others were Dean Isidor Loeb, E. C. Anderson and Prof. J. E. Wrench.

Ashland is the first Boone County town to report a complete subscription of its quota. Canvassers yesterday raised more than the $600 asked from that community, but exact figures were not obtainable today.

An Ashland delegation came to Columbia in motor cars and auto trucks to join in the peace celebration today. One of the trucks bore a Liberty Bell, which was rung constantly.

The closing of stores on Columbia because of the peace news caused Boyle G. Clark, city campaign manager, to call in the canvassers who were to have combed the business district today. They will make a new drive tomorrow, when it is expected to put Columbia over the top.

Reports this morning, with nine of the thirty-three residence districts missing, totalled $7,100 in subscriptions, according to Clark.

"If the business section will do as well as the residence sections, there will be no doubt about Columbia's oversubscribing its quota," said Clark.

Captain William O. Hill reported that the collegiate section of the S. A. T. C. had raised $7,400, or nearly twice its quota. Subscriptions of men sick, absent or on special duties are expected to raise this figure.

Senator Wiley, who was to have spoken here yesterday in the interests of the campaign, was unable to be present. His place was taken by Private Ramey.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

It is not necessary for me to call the attention of the people of the state to the noble purposes of freedom for which the manhood of America is fighting on a foreign field. Our commonwealth has arisen to a splendid understanding of these principles as expressed in the purchase of Liberty Bonds and subscriptions to other war campaigns.

That the world may be free from autocratic oppression, millions of our young men have separated themselves from their accustomed civilian life, with all its domestic influence. There is, therefore, a natural need in France, and in our cantonments, for the agencies that will supply, in some measure at least, the wholesome influence of the American home, the church and society.

Seven organizations, authorized by the Government to care for the welfare of the men in the service have been requested by President Wilson to combine their campaigns. These organizations are: The Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, National Catholic War Council (K. of C.), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association and Salvation Army.

The manner in which these organizations, since the very inception of the war, have contributed to the welfare, comfort and convenience of the men in the service is a source of continuous satisfaction to every loyal American.

Every good citizen will agree with the wise suggestion of the President and regard it as a great privilege to contribute to the point of real sacrifice to sustain the work of these organizations.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frederick D. Gardner, governor of Missouri, do hereby proclaim that the week beginning Sunday, November 10, 1918, shall be designated and set apart for the United War Work Campaign. I appeal for earnest attention to the work and a liberal response to the call for the funds absolutely necessary for its maintenance.

Despite the numerous so-called peace offensives of the enemy, the coming year promises to be the most critical one of the war. We will have at least another two million men in the service and it is highly necessary to the morale of that noble Army that they experience no interruption of this morale-making work which has entered into their army life, bringing them happiness and courage. To see there is no interruption is the part of those our boys have left at home—our part.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri.

Done at the City of Jefferson this 29th day of October, A. D. 1918.

(Signed) FREDERICK D. GARDNER

JOHN L. SULLIVAN,
Secretary of State.

Peace and the Clothing Situation

Don't look for any improvement in the Woolen market for the next year or so. Military demands will absorb 80% of the factory output up to spring and will not relax until next fall or winter. Even then the tremendous world-wide civilian demand will tighten the situation for many months.

Take care of the clothes that you have and if you're going to need any new garments during the next 8 to 12 months, you'd better buy now.

You men who care for your dress must not fail to look over our new lines of winter goods. Really we have some of the niftiest examples of style that have ever been offered to the public. There is class in every line of our suits and uniforms and they are tailored to your individual measure.

If you are particular as to your looks, come in—you'll not be satisfied with just the ordinary and we believe our goods and styles to be—but we'll leave that to your judgment.

You'll find our prices reasonable—$25.00 to $35.00.

Have just received a new shipment of fall gloves. Drop in and give us your hand.
